CAMMELI DOURIS - MUSICAL DIRECTOR

The musical director is the conductor of the Chorus and plays a key role in the overall direction of the show. They interpret the composer's intentions and guide the performance to bring the musical vision to life on stage. The musical director works closely with the conductor to ensure that the musical elements of the production are cohesive and effective. They are responsible for leading the Chorus during rehearsals and performances, providing feedback and guidance to ensure the best possible performance. The musical director also collaborates with the conductor to create a dynamic and engaging musical experience for the audience. Their role is crucial in ensuring that the music is brought to life in a way that is both true to the composer's intentions and exciting for the audience to experience.
