

Out & About

Making the magic happen behind the scenes is an ensemble of 100 helping hands. Pictured is The Corný Collins Show, featuring Connor Gyde as Corný, alongside the 'black' and 'white' cast.

SUPPLIED

The nicest kids in town

The cast of Fraser High School's production of Hairspray held a dress rehearsal at Clarence Street Theatre. The show is a welcome return to the stage for the school, as it is their first large performance for five years. The show stars students familiar with theatre and first-time performers, under director David Sidwell.

The vindictive Velma Von Tussle is played by Shaye Pakil.

A romantic moment between Edna (Jak Armstrong) and Wilbur Turnblad (Conor Bluet).

Conor Bluet, Jak Armstrong and Kayce Poata on the set of the Turnblad family home.

Miss Motormouth Maybelle, played by Charlene Neho, fights for the rights of African Americans.

The 'pleasantly plump' Tracy Turnblad, played by Year 10 student Kayce Poata.