Dear Jonathon,

Tena koe and congratulations!

The submission proposal titled Bridging the gap to interaction proficiency: Using miscommunication diaries that you submitted as a Paper: 30 mins incl 10 mins for Q&A for the CLESOL 2016 Conference has been accepted for inclusion in the conference programme.

All submissions were double-blind reviewed by the conference programme committee and were evaluated based on designated academic criteria. We're pleased to confirm your proposal met the evaluation criteria.

In order to confirm your submission in the conference programme, all presenting authors are required to register and pay to attend CLESOL 2016 by Monday 18 April 2016. If you have co-presenters, please forward this notification on to them.

A list of all accepted submissions is listed on the conference website.

Very Early Bird registration will be opening soon, and closes on Thursday 28 April 2016, so don't miss out on this discounted rate. We will email you with the registration link when registration opens.

The Programme Committee will be working on timetabling in May, so if you are now unable to attend the conference please let us know by Monday 18 April 2016. We will be in touch with you once the conference programme has been confirmed to provide you with further details about presenting at CLESOL 2016.
