

INDELIBLE

不可磨灭 Puumau Tonu

Recent Works by Xi'an Artists and Media Arts Researchers

The Wintec School of Media Arts and Waikato Museum Te Whare Taonga o Waikato invite you to attend the opening of Indelible.

Wintec School of Media Arts lecturers and their counterparts, artists from Xi'an Art Museum in Xi'an, China, have built close artistic relationships. This exhibition is a result of their long-distance communications.

When 5pm Friday 26 October 2018
5.15pm Speeches
5.30pm Concert

Where Waikato Museum, 1 Grantham Street, Hamilton

Indelible: a musical performance

As part of the exhibition opening celebration, composers and musicians from Wintec and the wider arts community will perform a concert of locally composed works. This will include the world premiere of a new work by David Sidwell written for soprano Pamela Wallace, a new composition by Debbie Nisbet for solo piano, and a performance by Kent Macpherson, Megan Rogerson-Berry, Jeremy Mayall and guests in support of their new album on RATTLE records Where We Overlap.