Indelible: a musical performance

As part of the exhibition opening celebration, composers and musicians from Wintec and the wider arts community will perform a concert of locally composed works. This will include the world premiere of a new work by David Sidwell written for soprano Pamela Wallace, a new composition by Debbie Nisbet for solo piano, and a performance by Kent Macpherson, Megan Rogerson-Berry, Jeremy Mayall and guests in support of their new album on RATTLE records Where We Overlap.

When 5pm Friday 26 October 2018
5.15pm Speeches
5.30pm Concert

Where Waikato Museum, 1 Grantham Street, Hamilton
Concert Programme

1. Indefatigable
   WORLD PREMIERE
   Composed by Jeremy Mayall
   Performed by Alexandra Wiltshire

   This piece is a conversation in 17 short parts for piano and tape

2. title
   WORLD PREMIERE
   Composed and performed by Debbie Nisbet

   blurb goes here

3. Here I Am
   WORLD PREMIERE
   Composed by David Sidwell
   Lyrics by Wayne Senior
   Soprano - Pamela Wallace
   Piano - Alexandra Wiltshire
   Cello - Yotam Levy

   This is the debut song from a song cycle being composed specially for soprano Pamela Wallace.

4. Colours
   Composed by David Sidwell
   Piano - Alexandra Wiltshire
   Cello - Yotam Levy

   One from the drawer… resurrected for piano and cello

5. In a space capsule of the mind
   WORLD PREMIERE
   Composed and performed by Kent Macpherson and Jeremy Mayall

   An interpretation of music from the album “Where We Overlap”