

THREE CIVIC TOWERS

Artist Statement Gareth Williams 2011

These works explore structures and functions of civic architecture. Each structure performs a civic function, whether it be for leisure, commercial, supply or security purposes. Though not monuments in themselves, they can also operate as civic landmarks, or as signifiers of civic identity.

Biography

Gareth Williams was born, raised and attended school in the Waikato region. He holds a Master of Fine Art from RMIT, Melbourne, Australia, and has exhibited throughout New Zealand, and also in Australia. He currently teaches in the School of Media Arts, Waikato Institute of Technology, Hamilton.