

e-Portfolios for Health: A Hands on Symposium

When 10 am to 3.00 pm 27 September 2012

Where Waikato Institute of Technology Hamilton

Aim: The symposium will explore how e-portfolios are being used to meet the on-going professional development needs of individuals in public and private healthcare organisations.

Interim Planning Group Sponsor: Sue Hayward Director of Nursing Waikato DHB
Academic lead: Dr John Clayton, Wintec
Committee: Anne Welsh, Waikato DHB; Kathryn Scott, Waitemata DHB; Anne Stevens Bay of Plenty DHB; Jeremy FitzPatrick, Waikato DHB; Penny Horton, Bay of Plenty DHB; Margaret Vercoe, Lakes DHB.

Who will attend: Anyone involved or interested in the learning and development of future and current health professionals; anyone involved or interested in shaping the systems that support and foster the learning and development of future and current health professionals.

What will happen

9.30 am Registration and Coffee: An opportunity to network
10.00 am Overview and Welcome
10.30 am Case studies of e-Portfolios in Action(Part 1)
12.00 pm Lunch (Provided by Waikato Institute of Technology)
12.45pm Case studies of e-Portfolios in Action(Part 2)
1.45pm Seeking Common ground a Workshop
2.30pm Where to Next: creating an Action Plan

Why should you attend?

People development is seen as central to the provision of high quality healthcare services. Efficiently and effectively managing individual development is key to success.

How will you benefit?

You will gain an understanding of firstly, how e-portfolios can contribute to the continuing professional development (CPD) of all employees, and secondly how this CPD can be effectively and efficiently managed.

Enquiries Waikato: Anne.Welsh@waikatodhb.health.nz
Lakes: Margaret.Vercoe@lakesdhb.govt.nz
Bay of Plenty: Penny.Horton@bopdhb.govt.nz
Waitemata: Kathryn.Scott@waitematadhb.govt.nz

To Register and/or discuss video conference options please contact Jeanette.Stephens@wintec.ac.nz Phone 07 858 0212

Application to Attend Please follow the leave processes your organisation requires. Places may be limited depending on interest.